Browzine

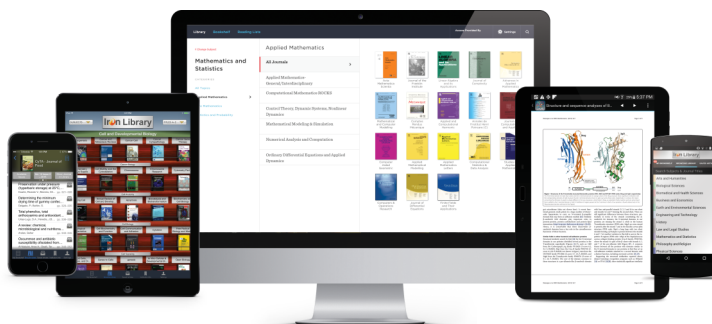

Check out BrowZine, a new service that allows you to browse, read and follow thousands of the library's scholarly journals available at browzine.com or from your Android and iOS mobile devices.

With BrowZine, you can:

- ◆ Browse and read journals: Browse journals by subject, easily review tables of contents, and download full articles
- ◆ Use the durable linking capability to easily link to specific “shelves” in BrowZine from your courseware
- ◆ In the mobile app, you can create a personal experience as well:
Create your own bookshelf: Add journals to your personal bookshelf and be notified when new articles are published
- ◆ Save and export articles: Save articles for off-line reading or export to services such as DropBox, Mendeley, RefWorks, Zotero, Papers and more

APA Training Videos

The APA provides an excellent series of training videos on topics relevant to you and your students. The videos include sample searches, demonstrations, and even videos from Psi Chi on how to transition from student to practitioner.

Syllabus Statement

Your students (hopefully) read their syllabus, and refer to it throughout the semester. This is a great place to include library information. Here's a statement you can copy & paste directly to your syllabus or an email, announcement, etc.

Your best library resource is your Psychology Librarian, Carrie Moran (carrie.moran@ucf.edu). She can meet with you individually to discuss your research needs, or answer questions via phone and email. You can find out more about her at: <http://library.ucf.edu/staff/moran-carrie/>
